

The Reinvention Experience

with Life Coach & CFF, Nina Urman

Reinvent yourself, your relationships and your legacy.

Deep down you know you're meant to do remarkable things: To create big and new possibilities for yourself, to take action and change your life and the lives of others. Are you ready to honor the call and create a meaningful new vision for your life and work? Are you ready for the next version of YOU? Are you ready to REINVENT yourself?

People can reinvent themselves at any age. They start families, they find their loved ones, they start new careers.

If you're stepping into your power, there's no age limit on that.

Many of us are afraid to let go of our identities, as they are defined by our careers, communities, or the expectations of others.

Yet this is exactly where we need to start. Reinvention requires an audit on all levels. First we need to understand who you think you are: your self-image, relationship to others, current purpose and world view.

This is about the next phase of your life. Reinvention is NOT about making incremental improvements: it requires starting from scratch.

In this course we will cover:

- The Reinvention Formula step-by-step
 - The 4 critical energetic shifts that allow you to receive more abundance in all areas of your life
 - The Difference between Inner and Outer Purpose
 - The Possibility Realm
 - Taking Massive Action and Making Real Changes
